Nestled within a secure, gated enclave in the central precinct of Los Altos, this elegant top-floor apartment embodies the harmonious fusion of comfort and practicality. It encompasses two generously proportioned bedrooms, complemented by two contemporary bathroom suites, and an expansive open-concept living space that seamlessly extends to a sizable private balcony, offering picturesque vistas of the shared pool area. This turnkey residence comes fully furnished, primed for immediate occupancy, and is replete with an underground parking space and a designated storage unit. The property also grants access to meticulously manicured communal grounds, which feature a substantial pool—a perfect setting for leisurely moments or social engagements. Whether
